

PTA Meeting

- Approval of Minutes - approved
- Treasurer's Report
 - CSA is done, deposited $2,700 (net $1,256)
- School Board Member's Report
 - Mark not at meeting but will add notes prior to posting minutes to the website.
 - There will be a school safety and security assessment completed in the coming months.
 - The Turner Group and master planning committee will host a public input session on November 20.
 - Calendar committee presented draft calendars.
 - A warrant article to explore withdrawal from the SAU will be put forth to the voters.
- Principal Report – Lori not present
- PTA Membership
 - We could have a contest, for each parent volunteer hour, that class could get points. For each parent member of PTA there could be some points.
 - Winners could get something for the class
 - Teachers could help with prize ideas - $ towards supplies, mini field day, extra special (like gym).

Report of Committees:

- Volunteer Coordinator – we don't have one yet, please think about helping out to coordinate volunteers.
- Book Fair
 - Week of Dec. 8-12th
 - Will be at the Holiday Fair on the 13th
 - Week before information will go out.
 - Our scholastic dollars are $0, so Carrie we'll take some cash and some Scholastic dollars.
 - NEEDS Volunteers!! Kendra Nolet said there are Gr. 7&8 looking for volunteer hours.
 - Setup is Friday Dec. 5th

- Children's Stage Adventures – not present
- Fall Fundraiser
 - We asked for donations during member drive and we made $3K
 - We'll look for something in the sprint (need volunteer)
- Garder Club
 - There will be an article in the next PTO Magazine about our Garden

- Spirit Wear
 - Flyers went out
 - We purchased up front, orders are not as high as we had. We'll use current stock to fill orders that are coming in and balance will be at Holiday Fair.
- Holiday Fair
 - 6 vendor spots left out of 32
 - Reindeer raffle information has been sent out
 - Tickets for the reindeer raffle (to win) will go out next week
 - Lots of gift cards and prizes available
 - Scavenger hunt, 4 different crafts, some games
 - Donated crafts will be accepted, something affordable for kids to purchase for their families
 - Cheerleaders will do concessions (and will do the 50/50 raffle)
 - Volunteers
- Monster Mash
 - Successful, first under "new management" 😊
 - The tickets for snacks and games – maybe do a different method like a bracelet next year
 - Made $2,218
 - Suggestion – would love family category for costumes
 - Costume contest – put categories for costumes on flyer
- Membership
- Laminating – desperately needed
- Reflections – doing it earlier this year
 - Entries due Dec. 8th
 - Could be on display for Holiday Fair and Santa breakfast
 - State award night is in March
 - Emails will be sent with information and rules on the category that the child is interested in (only sent to those that send in the intent form)
 - Will need volunteers for baking on Dec. 8th and setup help

Update on:

- Donations to School
 - Desks were purchased; school board said that this shouldn't come from PTA, unsure what will happen.
 - Folding tables purchased and delivered.
 - Monarch's game bus was purchased for field trip Nov. 19th
 - Turkeys are being purchased
 - Cheer mats – purchased for $2K, they were in great shape and they have been shipped.
- New Business
 - Storage Unit – to store all the Monster Mash decorations, we could store Holiday Fair stuff. Need a better long term solution. $65/month
 - Shed for supplies is an option (Eagle Scout Project)
 - Place ad in town crier – asking for storage space, or someone willing to purchase or build, willing to donate temporary storage...
 - Put it on the Facebook Page (MARK COMEAU)
 - Lori to add to her newsletter
 - Portrait fundraiser – it's already on AVS Facebook
