

PTA Meeting Minutes

March 21, 2017

President's report- Carrie Peabody

- We need more members and volunteers, please spread the word and try to recruit
- Important roles we need - membership, spirit wear (other positions will be announced soon)
- We'll have to evaluate what we can do with the resources we have

Treasurer's Report - Holly McDonald

- We're running at $7K deficit currently
- We have lots of money, but we should adjust the budget for next year and update it to be inline with the money coming in.
 - We talked about some of the things that are not on the budget that we'll add
 - Bus requests and/or increase the mini grant
 - Graduation - we usually pay for something (sound)
- We will also have create a fundraising committee to help with setting up what we get engaged with.
- Request for funds from Mrs. Cloutier for bussing for a field trip - APPROVED
 - Bus is approximately $360
 - Mini grants are used - where each child gets $6 to offset a field trip

Principal's Report

- Absent, but here's the link to the March letter

School Board Update - Maureen

- School Renovation: Article #2 failed by 87 votes. There were 906 yes votes and 749 voted no votes. We needed 993 votes to achieve the 60% requirement.
 - A discussion of next steps will be conducted at the April 11th school board meeting.
- SPED Director: Interviews will be conducted this week. After reviewing applications, the committee identified 6 candidates that will be interviewed this week. Following interviews, the committee will identify 2 candidates to submit to Dr. Littlefield for final interviews.
- School Board Goals: Instructional Coach Cheryl Lynch reported on behalf of the Primary Reading committee. Improving fluency and ensuring that all students are receiving differentiated reading instruction with the classroom are some areas the committee is addressing. Parents are encouraged to use "Big Universe" as a resource for shared reading experiences at home.

Upcoming events

- Literacy program for the kids - held in the library with the help of NJHS students
